

Lina Masiuliene

Lina Masiuliene is a senior business leader with 15 years' experience in the energy sector, former CEO and Board member of the Lithuanian Power Exchange. Ms. Masiulienė was elected to the APEx Board of Directors in December 2011. She was also elected to Supervisory board of JSC "Market Operator" in Ukraine in year 2022.

She has 11 years' experience at Nord Pool, Europe's leading power exchange. Lina currently holds responsibility for delivering IT and related services to several national power markets, transmission system operators as well as heading-up the company's dedicated consultancy arm, Nord Pool Consulting.

Lina also has solid frontline experience in the finance and banking sector, having at one time had responsibility for private banking at SEB Bank.

Lina Masiulienė has a Master's degree in Finance and Banking from Vilnius University. In addition, she studied business management and administration at Concordia University in Canada.

She completed the Baltic Institute of Corporate Governance's education for professional Board members and holds a second Master's degree in High Performance Leadership from BCS International, UK.