

Mohit Saigal, Global Leader, Business Development, MMS

Mohit is responsible for worldwide business development of wholesale electricity market solutions within Hitachi Energy.

Most recently, involved in projects spurred by new reserve/flexibility products, grid scale/BTM storage, hybrid/co-located and DER resources participation in electricity markets.

He has over 20 years of experience in engineering and business development covering markets in Americas, Europe, Oceania, Asia, Middle East and Africa.

Prior to Hitachi Energy, Mohit held positions at ABB, Smith Barney and University of Washington. He is based in California.